

I am a member living in the city of Wilmington and a local teacher. I value clean air and is working toward making awareness to the people in my community. Right now its so critical before anything gets worst. This cannot be normalized especially when there is zero emissions technology that can be used. But there are not been enough policies in place to enforce clean air that stands in the way. We can enforce policies that will help reduce this pollution to get what we want.

Laura Ramirez
& Ricardo Zendejas
24514 Albatross Ave.
Wilmington, CA 90744